TARS LOSE TWO TO PETERSBURG

Former Truckers Outplay and Outbat Norfolk, Taking Both Games.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., July 6.—Outplaying and outbating the Tars at every stage of the game, Petersburg to-day took both ends of a double-header by the scores of 4 to 3 and 6 to 1, the first game going ten innings.

In the first game Vail was going in better shape than Vance, although receiving poorer support. He should have won in a walk. In the second game Welsch had the best of the box argument with Fletcher, who was wild, and in addition the big Tar received miserable support. A feature of the afternoon came in the first game, a clean drive by Clunk to the clubhouse for a home run.

Booe's single, McFarland's sacrifice and Jackson's error counted for Petersburg's first run. Kirkpatrick's fly, followed by Toner's fumble, Murdock's sacrifice and Clark's sacrifice fly tied the score for the first time.

An error by Guheen, a sacrifice by Munson and a second error by Toner counted for the Tars in the fourth. Clunk's home run in the seventh tied the score up.

In the tenth, with one out, Booe singled and took third when McFarland got one safe, and Booe scored on the throw-in. McFarland scored when Bowen singled. Kirkpatrick sent up an easy one. Bonner opened with a free pass in the tenth, and hits by Clark and Munson put him around before three were retired.

The second game was a farce from the Norfolk standpoint. Their playing would have disgraced an average amateur team. Three errors, one each by Busch, Murdock and Jackson, coupled with a sacrifice, counted for two runs in the opening inning.

Booe's error, a free pass when McFarland hit, were good for one in the fifth. Booe's double and singles by McFarland and Guheen sent the only earned run of the game across in the seventh. The Tars' only run came in the seventh on a double by Murdock and a single by Chandler.

Errors by Busch and Jackson, with hits by Clunk and Kunkle, counted for a run in the eighth. Bonner's perfect throw from the field cutting off one of the runs. McFarland's double,

Bowen's single and a wild pitch gave the Cockade boys a run in the ninth. The scores:

LYNCHBURG WINS TWO FROM TIGERS

Roanoke Loses Both Games of Double Header on Home Grounds.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., July 6.—To-day was a sad event for Roanoke fandom. Both games of a double-header were won by Lynchburg. The first battle was close, and more or less creditable, but the second was a poor exhibition, so far as the locals were concerned. The visitors walked all around the Tigers, winning easily. The first game resulted 3 to 2, and the second was a shut-out, 8 to 0. Pritchard was handled unmercifully, and after four innings was succeeded by Jenkins, who did not put up a much better game. Thirteen hits were rolled up by the Shoemakers in that second engagement, and the way they forged ahead of the champions was almost a joke. The scores:

HE PICKED THE WINNER OF BIG FIGHT AT RENO

THE MAN WHO KNEW.

JOHNSON IS WILLING TO MEET LANGFORD

Names Cheyenne as Place for Fight, But Governor of Wyoming Declares He Will Not Allow It to Be Pulled Off.

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 6.—If Sam Langford, the Boston fighter, will put up a side bet of $20,000, Heavyweight Champion Jack Johnson will fight him in Cheyenne during the Great Frontier celebration, in the latter part of August, or a month later.

Johnson made this statement this morning, when his train pulled in from Reno, en route to Chicago.

For half an hour Johnson was given the greatest friendly demonstration he has received since the fight. A crowd of more than 5,000, including 1,000 colored soldiers of the Ninth Cavalry from Fort D. A. Russell, almost mobbed the champion's private car, which was attached to the Overland Limited on the Union Pacific, the crowd greeting the champion with wild yells and waving of hats.

Flowers were showered on him, and the crowds forced their way into Johnson's car to shake hands with him. A number of women in the crowd fainted as a result of the crush, and were taken into Johnson's car.

Johnson was accompanied by his wife, who wore a profusion of diamonds; his brother, George; his manager, Tom Flanagan; George Cotton and others. The veteran John L. Sullivan was also on the train.

"There is no show for a fight here during the Cheyenne Frontier celebration," said the Governor, when told of the talk about a Johnson and Langford match.

"Wyoming laws forbid it, and I will see that the laws are enforced. Personally, I am not opposed to the sport, and I should enjoy seeing the match, but the law forbids such fights. When I took the oath of office to uphold the laws, I meant it."

Langford Will Accept Offer.

San Francisco, July 6.—When Joe Woodman, manager of Sam Langford, was told to-night by the Associated Press that Jack Johnson had offered to fight Langford, if the latter would put up a side bet of $20,000, he declared he would accept the offer.

When told that Jack Johnson had offered to fight him, he would put up a side bet of $20,000, Sam Langford said:

"My first name is 'Bet,' and I'll fight Johnson at any time and place. As he is the champion, though, the odds should be two to one. I would put up $10,000 through Joe Woodman's money, row against $20,000 of Johnson's money. I will force him to meet me in the ring."

No Public Demonstration.

Chicago, Ill., July 6.—If a white man wants to meet a black man in the prize ring, and gets "hooked
